

AgJOBS in the 110th Congress (2007-2008)

On January 10, 2007, the Agricultural Job Opportunities, Benefits and Security Act of 2007, was introduced as S. 340 in the Senate (AgJOBS was initially introduced as S. 237, but was later reintroduced as S. 340) and H.R. 371 in the House of Representatives.

AgJOBS and variations on AgJOBS experienced several victories in the 110th Congress. In May 2007, the White House and several key Senators reached agreement on a comprehensive immigration package that included a revised version of AgJOBS. The United Farm Workers and major agribusiness groups accepted these changes after negotiations with Senators and the White House, led by Secretary of Homeland Security Chertoff and Secretary of Commerce Gutierrez. Unfortunately, the compromise legislation failed in July 2007 as a result of a filibuster.

Because 2008 was a presidential election year, there were few other legislative options. Senator Feinstein and Rep. Berman remain committed to passing AgJOBS.

The version of AgJOBS introduced this Congress is substantially the same as the version passed last year by the Senate (see AgJOBS in the 109th), with some minor adjustments to the work requirements and a clarification of the status of spouses and minor children of farmworkers during the "blue card" status period.
