

Georgia: Make Your Vote Count!

On December 6, 2022, Georgians will vote in a runoff election to select their U.S. Senator for the next six years. The winner of this election will help shape laws on issues like employment, immigration, and agriculture, impacting the lives of Georgia farmworkers for years to come. Make sure the voices of farmworker communities are heard in this election and vote!

Am I eligible to vote in the runoff election?

Anyone who was registered to vote in Georgia by November 7, 2022 is eligible to vote in the runoff election. Registered voters can vote in the runoff even if they did not vote in the November general election.

You can check your voter registration status at the Georgia Secretary of State's "My Voter Page" website: <https://mvp.sos.ga.gov/s/>.

Can I vote early in person?

In-person early voting options will be available for all Georgia voters on Monday, November 28. (Certain counties may also have voting available on Saturday, November 26.) All early voting will end on Friday, December 2.

The locations and hours of early voting can be found on your My Voter Page profile, or you can contact your county election office (find contact information here).

Can I vote by mail in the runoff election?

If you can't vote in person, you must request an absentee ballot by Monday, Nov. 28. You may submit an absentee ballot request online at this link.

Once you receive your ballot and fill it out, return it via drop box, by delivering it to your elections office, or by mailing it several days in advance to ensure it is received in time to be counted. All absentee ballots must be received by 7 p.m. EST on Tuesday, Dec. 6.

Where do I go to vote in person on Election Day?

You can find your assigned polling location on your My Voter Page profile. Polls close at 7PM!
